

Hanson A/V Technician

---

The Hanson A/V Technician is responsible for assisting the Lead Installer in the installation and calibration of Audio/Visual and networking equipment in homes and businesses. The Technician will also assist in daily documentation and weekly recaps. This role is responsible for all aspects involved with customer deliveries, set-ups, tutoring sessions and or trouble-shoots as directed by the company.

Responsibilities include:

- Performs custom installation jobs requiring carefully and precisely running wires through walls in homes or businesses to bridge audio, video, and networking components together
- Provides Clients with a premium in-home experience during delivery, including set up, tutorial on products, troubleshooting, and installation of premium Audio/Video Equipment
- Effectively calibrates High End Premium Audio/Video Equipment that can be located in multiple zones in a home or business
- Maintains company equipment and van
- Assists Project Custom Installation Lead in daily paperwork and weekly recaps
- Assists in building audio video furniture for customer deliveries
- Consults with Project Manager & System Designers on installation jobs

Basic Qualifications: Not required but preferred

- 6 months of experience with home audio video or car audio video installation work
- 6 months of customer service or in-home service experience
- 6 months of electronics industry experience
- Clean Driving & Criminal Record
- State/local licensing as required
- Able to carry/lift/push/pull weight up to 75 lbs. or 150 lbs. as part of team, with or without accommodation
- Knowledgeable on how to use tools such as ladders, power tools, basic measuring, construction of home
- Flexible hours between M-F availability between 8a-7p - Weekends 10a - 5p